

Scilla

Scilla IGT Red

This fruity rubicond, perky wine with ripe cherry colored reflections is one of the oldest wines made in the region and It's slightly led, almost sweet flavor holds the charm of a place that enchanted by the songs of Homer 's sirens

Name: IGT Scilla Red

Vines: Malvasia Nera, Nerello Calabrese, Gaglioppo

Vinification: Soft wine pressing with cold maceration

Soil: Medium mixture

Alcool: 13 % Vol.

Serving temperature: Chilled

Bottle: Bordolese 75cl

Food pairing: It is a smooth companion for a whole meal, but It's better with ricotta and other fresh cheeses

Organoleptic properties: A ruddy and fruity red wine, a captivating red colour of ripe cherries and slightly sweetish teste

